1. Step through the _____ entrance.

“But when you are invited, go and sit down [to eat] at the last place, so that when your host comes, he will say to you, ‘Friend, move up higher’; and then you will be honored in the presence of all who are at the table with you” (Luke 14:10 AMP).

2. _____ comes before honor.

“For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled [before others], and he who habitually humbles himself (keeps a realistic self-view) will be exalted” ((Luke 14:11 AMP).

3. Add _____ to your _____.

“Then this Daniel, because of the extraordinary spirit within him, began distinguishing himself among the commissioners and the satraps, and the king planned to appoint him over the entire realm” (Daniel 6:3 AMP).

Questions for personal reflection and discussion

1. What have you discovered from taking the S.H.A.P.E Survey?
2. Why do you think accountability is so difficult for some people?
3. What is your understanding of humility? Do you think it's natural or learned? Easier for some people?
4. Discuss what is the extra things God wants to add to your ordinary and why.

1. Step through the servant's entrance.

"But when you are invited, go and sit down [to eat] at the last place, so that when your host comes, he will say to you, 'Friend, move up higher'; and then you will be honored in the presence of all who are at the table with you" (Luke 14:10 AMP).

2. Humility comes before honor.

"For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled [before others], and he who habitually humbles himself (keeps a realistic self-view) will be exalted" ((Luke 14:11 AMP).

3. Add "extra" to your "ordinary."

"Then this Daniel, because of the extraordinary spirit within him, began distinguishing himself among the commissioners and the satraps, and the king planned to appoint him over the entire realm" (Daniel 6:3 AMP).
